

BARNETT

ANGUS RANCHES

The Legacy Begins Here.

Making a difference in the beef business isn't an accident. It's a deliberate process. It's how legacies begin. Barnett Angus Ranch recognizes the importance of the process of first building a herd. Then being confident the process can exceed the expectations of commercial cow-calf producers. The next step is building a brand based on phenotypic magnitude and genotypic excellence and offering that product to other beef producers. That's precisely our goal at BAR.
